Gardener's Corner

Congratulations to the winners of St. Timothy's Garden Ministry Raffle: Athulya J. (winner of the Patio Basket) and Debby S. (winner of the Gardener's Basket). We hope you both enjoy your amazing prizes!

As flowers bloom on our church grounds, we are reminded of God's goodness and the beauty of caring for His creation. Thank you to all the parishioners for supporting the Gardener's Ministry and helping keep St. Timothy's gardens welcoming and beautiful for all. Together, we raised an impressive $1,098. May God bless you for your support!

Do This in Remembrance of Me, Part 73: Communion under Both Forms

Last time, we addressed making a sign of reverence before receiving Communion in the sacred host or in the chalice. This time, we consider receiving from the chalice in particular. You may have noticed differences in what churches do for Communion. Someone who travels might encounter parishes where the Precious Blood is offered and others where everyone receives the sacred host without receiving from the chalice.

Let’s look at The General Instruction of the Roman Missal: “It is most desirable that the faithful, just as the Priest himself is bound to do, receive the Lord’s Body from hosts consecrated at the same Mass and that, in the cases where this is foreseen, they partake of the chalice, so that even by means of the signs Communion may stand out more clearly as a participation in the sacrifice actually being celebrated” (GIRM, 85). The point here is to emphasize that receiving Communion itself should help unite us to the Holy Sacrifice—through hosts consecrated at the Mass and, (then notice) “where this is foreseen,” from the chalice.

When Do We Receive Communion from the Chalice?

So, when are members of the faithful able to receive from the chalice? The GIRM reminds us that the bishops have the authority to give guidelines for the manner of receiving Communion in their dioceses. This is because the bishops are the caretakers of the liturgy within their dioceses. The GIRM does provide some guidelines for the bishops to follow: “Holy Communion has a fuller form as a sign when it takes place under both kinds. For in this form the sign of the Eucharistic banquet is more clearly evident and clearer expression is given to the divine will by which the new and eternal Covenant is ratified in the Blood of the Lord, as also the connection between the Eucharistic banquet and the eschatological banquet in the Kingdom of the Father” (GIRM, 281). What is this paragraph saying with “both kinds” (or sometimes we see the description “both forms”)? The reference here is to Communion being offered under the form of the sacred host and in the chalice. That is, that Communion would be offered in forms that involve both eating and drinking.

Why Don’t We Always Receive from the Chalice?

So, why don’t we always have Communion under both forms? Believe it or not, one simple reason is practicality. Having numerous people drink from the chalice requires either a very large chalice or a number of chalices. Depending on the size of the parish, this could be no problem; but in parishes that are very large, this can become a challenge. In one parish where I visited, there were 10 to 20 extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion at every Mass. As you might imagine, getting all these folks prepared and to their stations was quite a process. Another practical reason for some bishops and pastors is concern for reverence and the worry over potentially spilling the Precious Blood. Additionally, with heightened sensitivity to health, for some, the sharing of the chalice is personally challenging.

Along with some of these practical reasons, there is also a faith consideration based on our belief that Jesus is really and completely present under either form of Communion. The GIRM states, “Sacred pastors should take care to ensure that the faithful... are made aware by the most suitable means possible of the Catholic teaching on the form of Holy Communion as laid down by the Ecumenical Council of Trent. Above all, they should instruct the Christian faithful that the Catholic faith teaches that Christ, whole and entire, and the true Sacrament, is received even under only one species, and hence that as regards the resulting fruits, those who receive under only one species are not deprived of any grace that is necessary for salvation” (GIRM, 282). This text reminds pastors to make sure people know that receiving the host is receiving the whole Christ; receiving from the chalice is receiving the whole Christ; receiving both forms is receiving the whole Christ. There have been times in history where this teaching was not necessarily clear; for some, receiving Communion under one form can assist with that clarity.

Who Decides When We Receive from the Chalice?

Ultimately, the decision is up to the bishop, who can choose to extend the decision to the individual pastor. Bishops are charged to do whatever they think will be most helpful to people spiritually, while at the same time guarding the true faith and reverence for Jesus present in the Holy Sacrament. So, when you travel and notice that some parishes have Communion under both forms and some do not, know that the bishop and pastor have decided, according to the instruction of the GIRM, to do what they think is best for their parishes and people at the present time. As always, if we don’t understand the wisdom of our leaders in these decisions, we are invited to pray for the Holy Spirit’s guidance and wisdom, and continue to pray for true unity in Christ!

For Reflection:

1. Pray with 1 Corinthians 10:14–22, where St. Paul describes our unity in the “one loaf” of the Eucharist. Ask for a greater appreciation of Communion as union with Christ and one another.
2. Make a commitment to pray daily for your local bishop and for the guidance of the Holy Spirit in all his decisions.

Congratulations to our young parishioners who recently received their First Holy Communion. May Jesus in the Holy Eucharist continue to guide and strengthen you as you grow in faith, hope, and love.

We also extend our sincere gratitude to everyone who participated in our 4th Annual Eucharistic Procession. A special thank you goes to the many volunteers whose time, dedication, and hard work made this beautiful event possible, especially to our catering team for preparing and serving the meal that allowed us to enjoy fellowship together following the procession. Your generosity and service are a blessing to our parish community.

As Anthony prepares to begin a new chapter in his journey of faith, we thank him for his contributions to our parish and for the many ways he has served our community. Please keep him in your prayers as he continues to discern and follow God's call. Anthony's Candidacy Mass will be celebrated on Saturday, August 29 at 4:00 pm at St. Timothy's.

God bless you, Anthony. May the Lord guide, protect, and strengthen you in the years ahead. Know that you will remain in our prayers and will always have a home in our parish family.

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR SSVP CONFERENCE

"If you spend yourselves in behalf of the hungry and satisfy the needs of the oppressed, then your light will rise in the darkness..." – Isaiah 58:10

Summer is often called a season of abundance—of long days, ripe gardens, and vibrant creation. It is a time when the sun warms our skin and nature is bursting with life. But as we bask in this warmth and enjoy the ease that summer routines can bring, we are called to look beyond our own comfort.

The heat of the summer sun can be a harsh reality for those facing food insecurity, making the physical need for nourishment and a cool, safe resting place all the more urgent. True spiritual reflection in this season asks us to channel the warmth we receive into tangible acts of love for others. Sharing our bounty with the hungry is not just a seasonal chore; it is an act of grace that transforms the abstract idea of love into a concrete reality. When we help to feed the hungry, we become the very sun and shelter to those in need.

Vincentians continue to serve our hungry friends with weekly deliveries of food hampers throughout the summer months. Please remember us in our Mission. Your prayers and donations of food will help to keep us going for the next few months. See below for the list of requested food items:

- Cereals
- Macaroni and cheese
- Tinned tuna, salmon, chicken or ham
- Pasta and pasta sauce
- Canned beans
- Peanut butter
- Canned soups

SSVP wishes all Parishioners a very peaceful and safe summer.

Refugee Committee Update

Good news! The refugee sponsorship application submitted by our Parish through the Diocese in December 2024 has been approved by Immigration, Refugees and Citizenship Canada. This will allow one final couple to join the four related families our Parish has sponsored over the past 10 years, thanks to the generosity of parishioners.

The couple has been living in a refugee camp in Jordan since 2016 and is now awaiting travel documents to reunite with family in Winnipeg. Our Parish is committed to supporting them for their first year in Canada. Your prayers and financial support are greatly appreciated as we work to grow our Refugee Fund.

Refugee Fund Goal: $29,900
Current Fund Balance: $3,370.08

Refugee Fund donation envelopes are available on the shelf beside the bulletins outside the office.

Lip Sync and Dessert Delight – November 20/21

The Knights of Columbus invite you to attend their upcoming Lip Sync Fundraiser and Silent Auction in support of the St. Timothy's St. Vincent de Paul on Nov 20/21. Tickets are $30 each. Get ready for an evening of creative performances and laughter followed by delicious desserts and refreshments. Watch your fellow church members bring songs to life. Participants of all ages are welcome! Come showcase your lip sync talent and dances. Contact Ed Pelletier at 204-979-0555 for more info.

World Youth Day 2027 – Seoul, South Korea

We are excited to invite all young adults interested in traveling to Seoul, South Korea to consider joining our delegation from the Archdioceses of St. Boniface and Winnipeg for World Youth Day 2027 (July 27 – August 11)!

This is a powerful opportunity to encounter Christ, grow in your faith, and journey with young people from around the world. Our delegation will be bilingual (English and French), with dedicated support for both language groups, including catechetical sessions and small group discussions.

Fr. Brian is going with 83 delegates (so far)! If you know young adults ages 18–35, they are highly encouraged to join! Registration deadline has been pushed back to June 22, 2026. There's also opportunity to receive a grant from the diocesan fund for Adult Faith Formation.

If you're interested or have any questions, you may reach out to Fr. Brian, contact Yssa at ylicsi@archsaintboniface.ca, or call the Archdiocese Youth Office at (204) 594-0271.

Come and be part of this life-changing pilgrimage! For more info, click here. For poster, click here.

St. Malo Catholic Camps Update

After much discernment and deliberation, the Board of Directors has made the difficult decision that St. Malo Camps will be unable to offer the 8–12 and 12–15 age-group camps this year. We are, however, excited to offer three Family Camps this summer. These camps will begin on Thursday evenings and conclude on Sunday afternoons. We look forward to seeing what God has in store for families this summer!

The updated camp schedule is as follows:

- July 9–12: Family Camp 1 (new – registration opening soon)
- July 16–19: Family Camp 2 (new)
- July 20–21: English 5–8
- July 23–24: French 5–8
- July 30–August 2: Family Camp 3 (new)
- August 9–14: Bilingual 15–17 REVIVE

Registration and more information about family camps will be available very soon. We sincerely apologize for any disappointment or inconvenience these changes may cause, and we appreciate your patience and understanding as we update the website and process refunds as quickly as possible.

REFLECTIONS

WEEKLY MARRIAGE TIP

"Merciful and gracious is the Lord, slow to anger and abounding in kindness" (Ps 103:8). In these words, God gives married couples a blueprint for life together! Ask the Lord for help to love your spouse as God loves him/her.

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

June 14, 2026 – Eleventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

"The harvest is plentiful, but the laborers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers for the harvesting." Matthew 9:37-38

A steward is not a spectator. We are not called to simply cheer on other people as they do good works. All of us are expected to roll up our sleeves and participate in the work of the church.

GRIEF REFLECTION

Cherished memories never fade because a loved one is gone. Those we love can never be more than a thought away, for as long as there is a memory, they'll live on in our hearts.

Christ the King Church was filled to capacity on May 29 for the ordination to the transitional diaconate of Joseph Martin Pham. The Mass, solemnly presided over by Archbishop Albert LeGatt, was a joyful occasion marking the seminarian's entry into holy orders. We ask all the faithful to pray for our new deacon and to pray that he may experience a year of continuous spiritual growth as he prepares to become a priest in 2027.

A big thank you to Morica Pham and Nam Vu, from St. Philip Minh Parish, for their superb photos. Click here for the gallery.

ROOTED AND RISING – Canada Singles Congress – July 3 to 5, 2026

Step away from the noise and into a weekend of renewal, connection, and encounter. Join singles (ages 21–39) from across Canada at Camp Manitou, Headingley, MB for powerful talks, worship, authentic friendships, and intentional discernment. Come for the experience, leave with clarity and purpose. Be rooted. Rise boldly. Become who you're called to be. Register by June 15 via bit.ly/CanadaSinglesCongress2026. For poster, click here. # This Week on Formed

Week of June 14, 2026

Jesus Thirsts: The Miracle of the Eucharist

This visually stunning film takes viewers on a global journey to uncover the transformative power of the Eucharist. Engaging in profound dialogue with prominent Catholic leaders, the film explores the biblical origins of the Eucharist and shares powerful personal stories of lives transformed by the Blessed Sacrament.

How to Grow in Eucharistic Devotion (Even When You're Busy)

The Eucharist is the source and summit of the Christian life—but how do we actually grow in devotion to it in the middle of everyday life? In this episode of Practicing Catholic, Taylor Kemp and Scott Hefelfinger explore the beauty of the Eucharist and simple, practical ways to deepen your relationship with Christ.

St. Dominic Savio

In this episode, Brother Francis tells the story of St. Dominic Savio, a brave young man who gave his life to God. In a world full of difficulties, his joyful faith and courage shone like a light—proving that even the youngest hearts can achieve greatness.
