Monthly Prayer Intention of Pope Leo XIV

That Everyone Might Have Food

Let us pray that everyone, from large producers to small consumers, be committed to avoid wasting food, and to ensure that everyone has access to quality food.

Gardener's Corner

Our Garden Care Ministry Team is back for another season! Our color scheme this year is pink and white. Pink symbolizes peace and kindness.

We are looking for a volunteer with experience and proper equipment to prune all cedars on the grounds. Please contact Linda at 204-798-8339 or mteriaco@mts.net

Baptism Preparation Meeting Thursday, May 14, 2026 at 6:30 PM

Expecting or have a young child and considering Baptism? Our parish offers a Baptism Preparation Program required for first-time parents and recommended as a refresher; to help parents prepare for this sacrament.

Program includes:

- Online Reborn videos on Formed
- One in-person session with Fr. Brian, Michelle, and other parents

Please watch the videos in advance:
<https://bit.ly/BaptismPrepReborn>

Please RSVP: info@st-timothy.ca.

If you can't attend, another session will be offered later this year.

Do This in Remembrance of Me, Part 67: Showing the Host

“Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world. Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.” After his genuflection to Our Lord really present in the Most Holy Eucharist, the priest raises the chalice with the host and proclaims these words of St. John the Baptist (Jn 1:29). This part of the Mass is called the “Showing of the Host.”

The current General Instruction of the Roman Missal includes a paragraph on this part of the Mass: “Then the Priest shows the faithful the Eucharistic Bread, holding it over the paten or over the chalice, and invites them to the banquet of Christ; and along with the faithful, he then makes an act of humility, using the prescribed words from the Gospels” (GIRM, 84). There is really a communication going on here. Like St. John the Baptist, the priest is proclaiming the presence of the Lord Jesus and pointing him out so that everyone may know he is with us. Then the priest extends an invitation to those who are able to partake in this special gift, the Holy Eucharist.

An Invitation and a Gift

“Blessed are those called to the supper of the Lamb.” As Edward Sri indicates, “these words are taken from a climactic moment in the book of Revelation and indeed, the entire Bible (Rv 19:9).” The scene is set as the great multitude in heaven is singing together the Lord’s praises. Sri continues, “And the angel instructs John to write: ‘Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb’ (Rv 19:9). What is the festive supper of the Lamb? It is the Lord’s Supper, the Eucharist. First of all, the supper and the Lamb bring to mind the Passover supper in which Jews would sacrifice a lamb and eat of it as the main course of the meal... But this passage tells us something even more dramatic. In Revelation 19:6-9, the Lamb is revealed to be a bridegroom! And that means this Passover supper is a wedding feast. The Bridegroom-Lamb is Jesus, and the Bride represents us, the Church, whom Jesus is coming to wed... When you hear those words at Mass, do you realize that you are receiving a wedding invitation? You are being called to participate in the marriage feast of Jesus and his Church” (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, pp. 138, 140).

We are so blessed by his invitation and the gift of Jesus himself. What do we do now? The only right thing to do is to be honest with the Lord about his generosity and recognize that without his grace and mercy, we could never be worthy of such a gift. Thankfully for us, the words of the centurion from the Gospel (see Mt 8:8) summarize well what our response should be. After the showing and “Lamb of God,” the priest and the people respond, “Lord, I am not worthy that you should enter under my roof, but only say the word and my soul shall be healed.”

Our Response and Reception

As the Diocese of Peoria teaches, “We respond to this invitation of the priest to receive the Lord Jesus in the Holy Eucharist with humility. Like the centurion servant who recognized himself unworthy to have the Lord ‘under his roof’ to heal his child, it calls to mind our humility—and the Lord’s divine majesty that He can do this work despite our weaknesses” (A Study of the Mass, p. 19). As Edward Sri notes, these words of the centurion are also a prayer that “expresses a great faith that surpasses many others in the gospels and amazes even Jesus: he believes Jesus can heal from afar, simply by speaking his word... Jesus praises this man for his faith. Just like the centurion, we recognize our unworthiness to have Jesus come under the ‘roof’ of our souls in holy communion. Yet just as the centurion believed Jesus was able to heal his servant, so do we trust that Jesus can heal us as he becomes the most intimate guest of our soul in the Eucharist” (A Biblical Walk Through the Mass, p. 142).

The Diocese of Peoria reminds us: “it is for this reason that Jesus came into the world, as ‘people who are well do not need doctors, sick people do!’ ‘I have come to seek out those who are lost!’ In the Holy Eucharist, Jesus seeks us out! He comes to our doors and He knocks. Our reception of Communion is an opportunity to allow Him into our hearts...” (A Study of the Mass, p. 19).

The Lord Jesus, of course, knows our failings. That he wants us anyway is what makes his love so powerful and so amazing. That he would offer his very Body to us is even more amazing. It is natural for us to desire to repay a kindness, but what do we do when the kindness is the greatest gift in the history of the world? Thankfully, the rest of the Mass will help us to know what to do!

For Reflection:

1. Pray with the account of Jesus healing the centurion’s servant in Mt 8:5-13. If desired, extend your meditation to include the accounts of other healings and miracles in the rest of this chapter. Reflect on your own identification and/or connection with one or more of the persons who encounter Jesus, and ask for the healing you need at this time.
2. Reflect on what may be blocking the door of your heart or obstructing the Lord Jesus’ entrance. Make it a point to receive the Sacrament of Penance to prepare yourself to welcome Jesus more freely and fully in Holy Communion.

PARISH + COMMUNITY NEWS AND REFLECTIONS

With joyful hearts, we extend our warmest congratulations to Joel and Roselle on the celebration of their marriage last weekend!

May the Lord bless your marriage abundantly, fill your home with love and peace, and guide you both as you begin this beautiful journey together in faith.

Knight NEWS!

- Summer Meat Raffle

Get your chance to win amazing prize packages, each valued at approx. $600! Tickets are 3 for $10. See the Knights after Mass.

- Friends and Family Golf Day

Join the Knights of Columbus on Thursday, June 4, 2026, at Oakwood Golf Course. Registration forms are available outside the parish office.

Crowning of Mary Wednesday, May 13 at 7:00 PM

Join us in celebrating the Feast of Our Lady of Fatima with prayerful devotion to our Blessed Mother.

All are warmly invited to honor Mary, our Mother and Queen.

CANCELLED: Catholic School of Evangelization Banquet

We are sorry to announce the cancellation of the upcoming CSE annual banquet scheduled for May 11, 2026.

As many of you are aware, the CSE is presently in the midst of a recruitment campaign to replenish some of its key personnel positions which has, amongst other things, affected our ability to present certain activities at this time. We hope to possibly host a banquet this coming Fall. Refunds will be issued for tickets already purchased. Thanks for your understanding and please keep the CSE in your prayers.

WEEKLY MARRIAGE TIP

Are there any places in your heart where you have allowed resentment to grow or grudges to fester? Open these parts to God. Ask for His help to soften your heart and see your family through His eyes of love..

STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

May 3, 2026 – Fifth Sunday of Easter

"... the one who believes in me will do the works that I do, and in fact will do greater ones than these..." John 14:12

Stewardship is a faith response. The good works we perform are the result of our faith, not the cause of our faith. Stewardship flows from a genuine faith conversion.

GRIEF REFLECTION

Never forget that your journey through the wilderness of your grief may bring you through all kinds of strange and unfamiliar terrain. Remind yourself, you're not going crazy, you are grieving! – Understanding Your Grief

On Sunday, May 17, Catholics across Canada are invited to support the Pope's Pastoral Works (formerly Papal Charities). Through this collection, the Pope is able to offer emergency assistance to those in need around the world on behalf of all Catholics. Thank you for living your faith through your generosity.

The Boy From Milan: Stories of Carlo Acutis

Discover the inspiring story of Carlo Acutis, the young boy from Milan. You may have heard of him, the sneaker-wearing, computer-loving "gamer saint" of our time. But beyond the headlines and hashtags, the real story of Carlo is something deeper, something the world desperately needs to hear. Known for his deep love of God, devotion to the Eucharist, and quiet acts of charity, Carlo's life was a testament to everyday holiness.

St. Philip the Apostle | Catholic Saints

Dr. James Prothro and Taylor Kemp reflect upon St. Philip the Apostle. St. Philip often brought others to Jesus Christ. His feast day is May 3. Jesus shows Philip that by following Himself, he will see God the Father, and that we can be bold in our evangelization and intercession in praying for others.

Carlo Acutis: God's Influencer

"Carlo Acutis: God's Influencer" is a beautifully animated film that brings to life the inspiring story of Carlo Acutis, a modern teenager who used his passion for technology to share the Catholic faith with the world.
